Yesterday I went to a shop. I bought some food. I met a friend there and we spoke about the time when we went to school. I felt really happy.

My friend said that she was really poor now. I felt really sorry for her and I gave her some money from my wallet. She said „Thank you.“

Then I came to the checkout and I found out that my wallet was not in my pocket. I thought that I made a mistake and put it somewhere else. But it was nowhere. I lost it in the shop, I thought. But it wasn't there either. Now, I knew that my friend stole it when I spoke to her.

The police never caught her.
