

juggle to keep objects moving through the air by catching them as they fall and throwing them back into the air	crowded full of people enter to come in	disappear to move somewhere where you cannot be seen to keep objects moving through the air by catching them as they fall and throwing them back into the air	full of people to come in	to move somewhere where you cannot be seen pulse the regular movement of blood as the heart pumps it round the body	give it a go to try	hand over to give something to someone apology saying sorry	to buzz to make a rough continuous sound	standing ovation people stand and clap to show how much they enjoyed or approved of it
