FCE speaking exam – part 2

Examiner: In this part of the test, I'm going to give each of you two photographs. I'd like you to talk about your photographs on your own for about a minute, and also to answer a short question about your partner's photographs. Candidate A, it's your turn first. Here are your photographs. They show different activities people do alone. I'd like you to compare the photographs, and say why the people want to be alone. All right?

Why do the people want to be alone?

Thank you. Candidate B, what do you like doing alone?

Thank you.

Now, Candidate B, here are your two photographs. They show people being together in groups. I'd like you to compare the photographs, and say why you think people are together in these situations. All right?

Why is it important for the people to be together?

Thank you.

Candidate A, what do you think of formal meetings?

Thank you.

FCE speaking exam – part 3

Examiner: Now, I'd like you to talk about something together for about three minutes. There is a youth club in your town and you would like to offer to teenagers some activities they would like. You have to choose from the activities in the pictures. First, talk to each other about why you think people would like these activities and then decide which two activities you would offer to people and why. All right?

Why do teenagers like these activities? Which two activities will your youth club offer?

FCE speaking exam – part 4

Examiner: Which of these activities do you enjoy doing?

Which activities do you hate doing?

Are there enough activities for teenagers in the area where you live?

What are the problems teenagers in your area have?

What should be done, so that teenagers would cause no problems?

Are there any activities which aren't suitable for teenagers?

(The examiner will add these as he/she will think appropriate:

What do you think?

Do you agree?

And you?)
